Different levels of Excise Levy for identical products

903. SHRI M VINCENT: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state

(a) whether Government levy different levels of excise duties for the same product, like synthetic detergents having different quality norms, and

(b) whether Government are considering higher levels of excise duties on products which have harmful effects on the consumers so as to discourage production of such products and if so, what are the details thereof?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI DIGVIJAY SINGH): (a) Excise duty is levied on goods manufactured in the country and generally the rate of duty chargeable on goods is uniform irrespective of the quality.

(b) Presently, there is no proposal for imposing higher levels of excise duty in general on products which are harmful to the consumers. However, certain items like cigarettes, tobacco, pan masala are already subjected to relatively high levels of excise duty, which is likely to affect the excise consumption of such items.
